CLASSES

Freshmen: Into Sticky Business

The largest Freshman Class in the Meredith College's history, the Class of 1987, began their college careers by sweating out Orientation. With Sticky Business as their Cornhuskin' theme, the Freshmen led by Karry McMillin and Leslie Swain began a week filled with late night water fights, secretive practices, and alliances with their Big Sisters. The Freshmen posted their first Cornhuskin' victory by winning the Spirit Award. Before Thanksgiving the daisy sale was held to raise funds for the Freshman/Sophomore Spring Dance held at the Royal Villa on April 7. Their Stunt performance made everyone recall their first fraternity party. After the excitement and fun of this year, the Freshmen are looking forward to greater things during the remainder of their Meredith careers.

Sophomores Are A Big Deal

So what's the "Big Deal" about Sophomores? Plenty of things, that's what!! This year was packed with new and exciting experiences — self determining hours, the Medieval Festival, Class Day, and numerous fund raisers that show the spirit of the Class of '86. And oh! what songs, what performers, what fun Cornhuskin '83 was! The Sophomores were really "wheeling and dealing" their way through the festivities and into the wee hours of the morning at Zack's. The Sophomores sold Christmas Dance glasses which added a classy touch to a great evening. Sadly we say farewell to our big sisters, remembering what a special year it has been.

Class Spirit

Throughout the entire Cornhuskin' week, the Sophomore Class exemplified class spirit. Water fights in the Courtyard, rolling the freshmen, and singing chants to the other classes are just a few highlights. Cornhuskin' is just one of the many Meredith traditions that draws classes closer together.

Juniors: Putting Their Best Foot Forward

Through the hard work of our class and class officers, we have made our Junior year a success. Our faculty advisors, Debra McGuire and Bernard Cochran, added spice to the class meetings as well as good advice. The Class had several fundraisers. They included selling Cornhuskin' buttons and Meredith huggers, sponsoring Cloisonne jewelry and the Air Guitar Night and class dues. With the support and dedication of Rhett and Tammy at Cornhuskin', we placed second. A second place finish at Stunt was also a highlight due to Maria and Mary. With the creative work of Nancy Bean we placed first in the Medieval Banner competition. The Gradford Grabbers and the Kazoo Band added to a successful year. Getting class rings, becoming Big Sisters and being a part of the Junior/Senior were very special to us. This year was filled with more wonderful memories and more thoughts of graduation. It was an exciting year!

First Little Sisters; Now Big Sisters

Now that we are Juniors, we not only have Big Sisters, we are Big Sisters. The Big Sister-Little Sister tradition at Meredith is one well worth having. It's the beginning of life long friendships and very special memories. Our Little Sister class was larger than usual, so many of us were fortunate enough to have two, three, or even more little sisters. At the beginning of the year, we welcomed our little sisters with an ice cream party at the lake. 'Cornhuskin' helped these relationships to grow as we shared a week of spirit and support.

Rings! Rings! Rings!

White gold? Yellow gold? 14 Karat? 10 Karat? Which finger? Decisions! Decisions! Why so many? The traditional Meredith class ring, a black onyx oval engraved with the school seal and Oak Leaves, symbolizes a great deal of hardwork and effort and therefore is worn with great pride. It has to be perfect. A great deal of patience is required on the part of all Juniors as they anxiously await the arrival of their class rings.

Rings, the symbol of Meredith college.

Juniors salute their Cornhuskin' leaders.

Cornhuskin': Singing Our Way to Success

The Junior Class put their right foot forward Cornhuskin' night '83. The excitement of being upperclassmen, the class spirit, our little sisters, the good food and funny costumes added another special memory for the Juniors. Our shoes certainly fit when it came to our songs to the tunes of the Wizard of Oz which won this competition. Hog calling centered on the discussion of foot phobias and an odor eater was our tall tale. We may not have won this year, but look Cornhuskin' '84, the Class of '85 will make its presence known.

Zan tells the trials and tribulations of being an odor eater.

How do you say goodbye to someone you shared a love with —
 To someone who brought so much joy and fulfillment —
 How do you say goodbye and let go of that which you once held,
 to comfort and to nourish
 and to love?
 I don't think we can really
 say goodbye, anymore than we can say goodbye to our hearts
 — we will survive — we will feel love again, but we will never forget each other.

Basketball: A Strong Finish

The Meredith Basketball team (7-12) finished strongly winning five of their last six games. The team started out slowly losing five straight games, but that was largely due to the youth of the team (¾ were freshmen or sophomores). After Christmas, the team re-met three of the teams played before the break and beat each of those teams. By the second half of the season they improved with each game and became very competitive. The team won six of their last ten games with three of the four losses by less than three points.

The team played exceptionally well at the end of the season, and won the Invitational Tournament at Meredith. They won both of their tournament games by a twenty point margin, defeating

Warren Wilson for the championship. Clare Lynn Brock, Ginger Ratcliff, and Tish Bondurant were stand-outs in the tourney. Clare Lynn averaged 30 points in both games, while Tish and Ginger each averaged 12 points and 8 rebounds per game. Clare Lynn and Tish were named to the all tourney team. For the season Clare Lynn won the MVP award, having averaged 19 points and 8 rebounds per game. Ginger Ratcliff received an Outstanding Performance Award for recognition as the best defensive player. The 1983-1984 Meredith Golf team consisted of only four people, who were dedicated to the game of golf. At Duke, they shot a team score of 311 with individual scores of 77, 77, 77, and 80. This broke the old school record by 13 strokes. Although the spring season started slowly, the team had an exciting finish at the Small College National Championship in Tallahassee, Florida. In that, the final tournament, the team finished fifth among NCAA Division II and III teams.

Senior Luann Johnson, a four year player and two-time All-American, received the MVP award. Cathy Everett received the Coach's Award for spirit and overall contribution to the team. Next year holds more high hopes for golf at Meredith.

The 1984 Meredith softball team was one of unity, and their season was composed of "serious fun". The girls learned how to lose, yet they kept their heads high and still managed to have fun. Against many tough teams, such as Chowan, Louisburg, and Atlantic Christian, Meredith never let anyone take advantage of them. Most of their games were extremely close, some going into extra innings, which proves that they didn't give up until the final out was made.

The team's MVP award went to Jill Humberger, who also captured the highest batting honors with a .387 average on the year. The Golden Glove award went to Teresa McMaster, whose fielding average was .942 for the year.

This year's team was a young team consisting of 8 freshmen. Jill Humberger, the only senior, served as the team leader, and although her absence will be missed next year, the future is bright as there are several experienced players returning.

The seniors, Lynn Ward, Ginger Ratcliff, and Grace Akers, have amassed the most successful record of any group of players at Meredith. They were the nucleus of the team. According to Dr. Chamblee, "These three seniors have provided leadership, enthusiasm, intensity, and desire which are necessary both to win and to play consistently. Ginger and Lynn are outstanding hitters and led the team in spiking. Grace has been our setter for the past four years. Grace gets to a lot more balls than many setters."

Sophomores Dalinda Dunn and Nancy Ratcliff tremendously improved their abilities and added a lot of strength to the offense. Dalinda was the strongest server on the team. Paulina Leroux was the second setter and the quickest defensive player. She led the team in saves.

Ginger Ratcliff was the strongest hitter on the team and won MVP honors for her volleyball skills and leadership. Grace Akers and Lynn Ward received Outstanding Performance Awards for setting and spiking.

The Volleyball team won both tournaments they played in during the season — the first at Lynchburg and the second at Salem College. The Salem College Invitational capped their season. EVENTS

Moving In: Beginning a New Year

From August 18 to August 23, students began arriving at Meredith to begin the new year. Freshmen began a week of new experiences and orientation complete with the frustrations of registration. The Sophomores discovered it was not cooler on the other side of the courtyard. However, the Juniors and Seniors enjoyed the cool comfort of air conditioned dorms. That first hectic week of meeting new friends, seeing old friends, and finding a place for all your belongings was only the beginning to a super year.

Ye Jolly Olde Time

In the fall of 1983 Meredith College hosted its first Medieval Festival. The festival began Sunday, September 25 and ended Thursday, September 29. Various academic departments on campus presented film festivals, slide shows, demonstrations, and workshops showing different aspects of medieval life. Tours of the N.C. Museum of Art and the Brass Rubbing Shoppe were the highlights of the festival. The festival ended with a Medieval Fair in the courtyard where there was medieval food and entertainment. A program of courtly music was presented by the singing Troubadours, Mary Feeny and Gerald Lee Farnham.

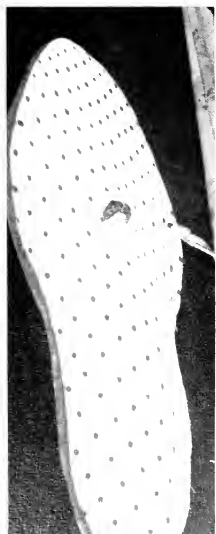

Stayin' Alive With Cornhuskin' '83

The competition included apple bobbing (Seniors), cornhuskin' (Seniors), hog call-in' (Seniors), songs (Juniors), tall tale (Seniors), parade (Seniors/Juniors), participation (Seniors), and cooperation (Seniors/Juniors). When Cornhuskin' '83 was over the Seniors had placed first with the theme "Rags to Riches", followed by the Juniors — "If the Shoe Fits"; the Sophomores — "Big Deal"; and the Freshmen — "Sticky Business".

Tunt O'Tay

Held on February 22, Stunt 1984 was MC'ed by Boy George, Michael Jackson, and Cyndi Lauper. Jil Humberger, MRA president, was the highlight of Tunt O'Tay as she provided great imitations of the MC's. Competition was tough, but the Seniors captured their first Stunt victory with the theme Movin' Or, an account of life in a rest home. Placing second, the Juniors revealed what really happens at the zoo when the visitors leave. The Sophomores presented a comparison of life at Meredith today versus 1920. In their first effort, the Freshmen made us all remember the first fraternity party we attended.

A Night of Mutual Bewilderment

On February 16th, Meredith students and alumnae enjoyed a special event on the Meredith College campus. February 16th was a night full of amusement and bewilderment as the Meredith College faculty and staff presented Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland. Alice in Wonderland is presented by the faculty and staff for the enjoyment of Meredith's own students and alumnae once in every College generation, the first performance dating back to 1924. The cast of Alice in Wonderland is composed of almost all of Meredith's faculty and staff. Much time and energy was expended in preparation for the big night as practices began early in the year. However, the enthusiasm of the audience and the excitement of the cast combined to make February 16th a night of mutual bewilderment.

Religious Emphasis Week

January 29-February 2 marked Religious Emphasis Week on the Meredith College campus. "The purpose of Religious Emphasis Week is to give Meredith students an energy boost during the long winter months," stated Religious Emphasis Week chairperson Anna Pearson. Girls between the ages of 7 and 12 enjoyed games, movies, picnics, and Spring Fling. Both the younger and older angels enjoyed the weekend of activities.

Play Day Olympic Style

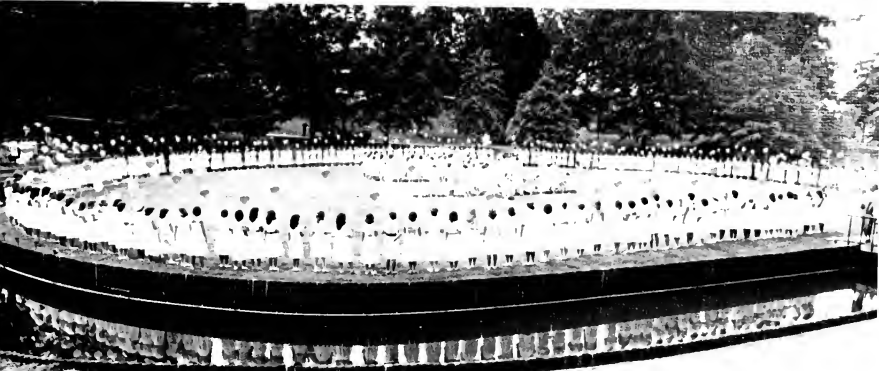

On April 11, 1984, MRA sponsored an Olympic Play Day. Before the exam rush, students and faculty were entertained by a courtyard picnic, roller skates, volleyball games, and various races. Gold medals were awarded to the winners and Rhoda Sowers topped off the afternoon by supplying music.

Class Day 1984

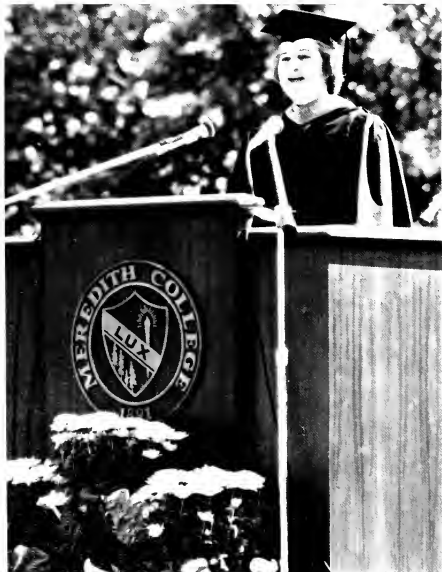

On May 12, 1984, the Seniors along with their Big Sister Class, Little Sister Class, parents, and friends entered the McIver Amphitheatre to remember four wonderful years at Meredith College. The Sophomores had risen early (5 a.m.) to gather daisys, ivy, and "wild" flowers for the daisy chain. Their efforts were greatly appreciated and the daisy chain was beautiful. As the Seniors listened to the Bath Tub Ring (Harriet Platts, Pam Mortensen, Lisa Lottis, and Terrie Holland), presented the class doll which was dressed in a lavender taffeta formal, heard the class history, sang to their sister classes, watched the helicopter hover, and released their purple and gold balloons, the full range of emotions — from happiness and laughter to sadness and tears — was experienced. When Class Day ended, the Seniors were sentimental, yet enthusiastic about the final event of the weekend — GRADUATION!!

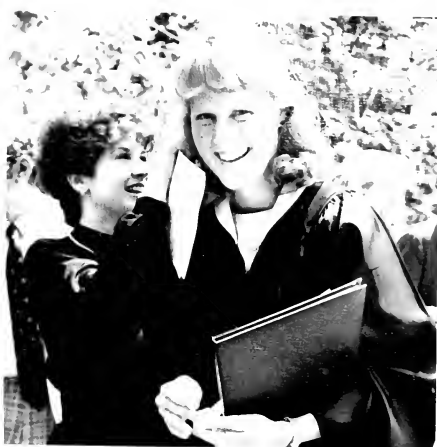

Graduation: A Fond Farewell

As the processional began on May 13, 1984, each member of the Senior Class wondered where the time of four years had gone. It seemed to have passed so quickly, yet each Senior felt an intense excitement about the new status of being an alumna. Sara Wilson Hodgkins, Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources, challenged the graduating class to support the arts. After everyone had received their degree, Kim Causey, class president, bid farewell to Meredith on behalf of the Class of 1984. She made each one of us recall our fondest memories of Meredith and the friends we had made there.
